

AS-Xpress Communication

"AS-Xpress Communication" is a smart and automated mail solution which is very easy to use.

You can easily create personalized letters to customers, members, etc. together with e.g. brochures, newsletters or summonses with associated documentation.

With "AS-Xpress Communication" you can easily compose the mail and send it with attachments to selected recipients (written in excel). Perfect for businesses on e.g. fairs as well as for customer and association mailings.

AS-Xpress Communication

Summary

AS-Xpress Communication streamlines customer relations through a simple interface. You get more time for customer care and sales work.

It's easy to attach summonses, etc. and simplifies communication by mail for associations.

How it works

All is done in the cloud so you don't need any specific software or other requirements, just an internet connected computer, smartphone or tablet. The needed information is parsed from an excel-file and documents you want to attach can easily be uploaded. Press Send and all your recipients will soon receive personalized messages.

Benefits

If you have a license, you can access the system wherever you are in the world. You can choose to send to one or more recipients. All recipients will also receive a personalized document with the same text as in the mail. This is in A4 format and is easy to store on disk, print or put in a binder.
